PETITIONING THE COURT*To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

1

Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On March 27, 2013, the United States Probation Office was contacted by the offender's girlfriend, Amber Strausser. Ms. Strausser indicated that she was assaulted on March 26, 2013, by her live-in boyfriend, Anthony Mines. The police were contacted, and an incident report was filed. According to the police report, Anthony Mines allegedly elbowed the victim in the back and the head. The report alleges that Mr. Mines punched the victim twice in her left leg/thigh as hard as he could. The investigating officer observed the area on her left leg was beginning to swell, and it was starting to turn yellow in color, which indicated the start of a bruise. As the officer was taking the report, he observed the area on the victim's leg continue to swell. The victim also received a broken toe during the incident. The victim told the police that Mr Mines told her that he would send people after her if he goes to jail.

Mr. Mines fled the scene prior to the arrival of the police department. The police report indicates that there is probable cause to arrest Anthony Mines for city assault-domestic violence. The victim was advised to file a restraining order, and to go to the police department to have a picture taken of her bruised leg.
